PASSAGE I (QUESTIONS NO. 171-180)

I notice nowadays a little girl at home always playing the school-game in a corner of the verandah but never without a flat, wooden foot-rule in hand which she flourishes menacingly at the pupils assembled in her phantasmagoric class- room on investigation I found that the cane being discredited, has yielded place to the foot-rule, especially in, Convent' schools the flat-rule has the advantage over the primitive birch of mauling without marking which could count as an achievement in torturing technique and it also possesses the innocent appearance³ of a non-violent pedagogic equipment A modern educate naturally, has to adapt his ways to modern circumstances, and put away obsolete weapons The flat-rule is employed only at education, torments to a young soul are devised in subtler forms progressively: admissions, textbooks and examinations are the triple weapons in the hands of an educator today.

171. What are the subtler forms of torture at higher level used progressively?
(A) Getting admission into collage is a torture
(B) Getting into colleges getting textbooks and facing exams
(C) Putting away the obsolete weapons like canes

- (D) Using examinations as a means of torture

172. What must have prompted the little girl to flourish the rule menacingly at the pupils?

- (A) Her teacher must have told her to do that
(B) Her teacher must have flourished the foot-rule in her classroom
(C) The pupils assembled there must be noisy
(D) The girl wants to frighten the pupils

173. What could be the investigation taken up by the writer?

- (A) Why she used a flat-rule instead of a cane
(B) Why was she having her class in the corner
(C) Why she was threatening the pupils assembled
(D) Why she was always playing the school game

174. The cane is discredited because

- (A) the primitive birch can maul without marking
(B) It is an achievement in torturing techniques
(C) It has a menacing appearance and it cannot maul without marking
(D) It is a non violent pedagogic equipment

175. What is the advanced torturing technique at the primitive stage?

- (A) The flat foot-rule
(B) Admissions and textbooks

After the death of Oedipus, Civil war broke out and a battle was waged in front of the seventh gate of Thebes-his two sons led opposing factions and at the height of the battle fought and killed each other. Oedipus brother, Creon, uncle on Antigone, was now undisputed master of the City. Creon resolved to make an example of the brother who had fought against him, Polynices, by refusing the right of honorable burial, the penalty of death was promulgated against any who should defy this order. Antigone was distraught. Polynices had been left unburied, unwept, a feast of flesh for keen eyed carrion birds. Antigone asks her sister Ismene for it was a challenge to her royal blood." Now it is time to show whether or not you are worthy of your royal blood is he not my brother and yours? Whether you like it or not? I shall never desert him-never!" But Ismene responds, "How could you dare- When Creon has expressly forbidden it is not for us to fight against men" With a touch of bitterness, Antigone releases her, but sister from the obligation to help her, but argues she cannot shrug off the burden." if you I die for it, what happiness! PASSAGE III

(QUESTIONS NO. 191-200)

The years passed too quickly. In 1940 Nani finished his B.A with honors in English, and in 1942 his M.A with honors in the same subject, in these exams he could not complete his papers because the writer's cramp that was to haunt him for the rest of his life had begun to appear for the first LLB. Examination he was given a writer The person sent for the morning paper was so incompetent that Nani refused to continue with him and came out of the examination hall exasperated Nargesh immediately contacted the Vice-Chancellor of the University, who directed the supervisor at the examination centre to allow Nargesh herself to substitute Another writer was sent for the afternoon paper and those to follow. He continued to be with Nani during all the subsequent examinations- second LLB, Advocates AS and Advocate OS.

An interesting anecdote is recounted by jayasheela Badami, Who was told about it by her cousin by Kishore Nanavaty. Justice P.S examiners for law exams. Once, While he was correcting papers, he asked Kishore to have a look at one paper, and commented focused, accurate and in proper order, He said he thought the student deserved to be ranked number one and that he would give him full marks for the paper since the answer book did not bear the name of the examinee, Kishore, a curious youngster, memorized the seat number to check it up at a letter date when the results were published, Kishore looked for the name matching the seat number he found the name Nani palkhivala. On completing his B.A, Nani's desire was to be a college lecturer, It went well with his taste for literature, and his professors had given him all the encouragement he needed He even applied for a lecturer's post, but another lady candidate was equally well-qualified and had the teaching experience too, which Nani did not have so he did not get selected.

After his M.A Nani wanted to join the Indian Civil Service (ICS) this was around 1942, when the war was on and written examinations were being held in Delhi In the 1940s, the ICS held a fascination for bright young students for whom it was the ultimate career Though Nani seldom spoke about it in his later years, he apparently treated the civil service examination as something of a challenge. Nargesh, too was very keen that he takes his ICS papers Accustomed to standing first in whatever studies he undertook and winning prizes, medals and scholarships almost as a habit, Nani no doubt felt that he could top the list of successful candidates even in the civil service examination, If only he had a chance to appear for it Nani made two attempts, says Behram The first time, He was disqualified in the preliminary physical test Thereupon he regularly did a lot of exercise to build upon his body Next time, he was declared physically fit but an epidemic broke out in Delhi and considering the anxiety of his dear ones he did not send his application form for the written examination, for which a time limit had been set, It did indeed seem that limit expired the venue for the examination was moved from Delhi to Bombay on account of the epidemic

The net result was that Nani could not make it to the ICS. It did not bother Nani's father,

SSC Graduate Tier-II (16-09-2012)

Ardeshir, who wanted his son to be a lawyer
Ardeshir, Who wanted his son to be a lawyer Ardeshir used to say: become a Layer, my son, you are cut out for law' The father saw that Nani Had a sharp, analytical, incisive mind that put him a cut above ordinary mortals. he could see that as a lawyer Nani would grow in status and reputation. Nani was later to say: My father was of the view that I would not enjoy being anybody's servant- Not even the government's-and the thought that I would do well in the legal profession' The father Knew his son's mind better
